Welcomes

The Lenape People: Survival and Resilience

A special presentation by Clan Mother Shelley DePaul will focus on Lenape history and culture as it relates to family, tradition, community, and world perspective.

Clan Mother Shelley DePaul has served on the Council of the Lenape Nation of Pennsylvania since 2002 as Genealogical and Historical Researcher, Lenape Language Specialist, and Educator. She teaches Lenape Language classes and workshops, and presents lectures and educational programs on Lenape History and Culture.

Shelley was co-curator of the exhibit, "Fulfilling a Prophecy: The Past and Present of the Lenape in Pennsylvania" at the University of Pennsylvania Museum, and of Lenape Exhibit at the Sigal Museum in Easton. Both exhibits relate long-hidden story of the survival of the Lenape in their homelands and feature never before displayed objects from the private collections of Lenape people in Pennsylvania. She collaborates with various individuals and organizations regarding Lenape horticulture and medicinal plant practices and has published three books on Lenape Language and Lenape Ethnobotany. She is a Pennsylvania State Certified teacher with an MA in History
